

Manor College Psychology Program Learning Goals

Goal I: Knowledge Base of Psychology

Students will develop knowledge of the major concepts and theoretical perspectives in psychology.

Objective 1: Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of developmental changes in behavior and mental processes across the lifespan.

Objective 2: Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of abnormal behavior and psychological disorders.

Objective 3: Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of counseling theories.

Goal II: Ethical and Social Responsibility in Psychology

Students will develop an understanding of values and ethics that are the underpinnings of psychology.

Objective 1: Students will identify personal and professional values including the respect for human diversity.

Objective 2: Students will demonstrate an understanding of the necessity for ethical behavior in psychology.

Goal III: Communication Skills in Psychology

Students will be able to communicate effectively.

Objective 1: Students will demonstrate effective writing skills using guidelines for APA style.

Objective 2: Students will demonstrate effective interpersonal communication skills.