

Accuplacer Exemption Policies

Exemption from Elementary Algebra Test	Exemption from Arithmetic Test	Exemption from Reading Test	Exemption from Writing Test
The student who has earned a Bachelor degree unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned a Bachelor degree unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned a Bachelor degree	The student who has earned a Bachelor degree
The student who has earned an Associate Degree from Manor College unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned an Associate Degree from Manor College unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned an Associate Degree from Manor College	The student who has earned an Associate Degree from Manor College
The student who has earned an Associate Degree within 10 years of acceptance into Manor from a college other than Manor unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned an Associate Degree within 10 years of acceptance into Manor from a college other than Manor unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has earned an Associate Degree within 10 years of acceptance into Manor from a college other than Manor	The student who has earned an Associate Degree within 10 years of acceptance into Manor from a college other than Manor
The student who has scored 530 or above on SAT mathematics	The student who has scored 530 or above on SAT mathematics	The student who has scored 530 or above on SAT combined verbal/writing	The student who has scored 530 or above on the SAT combined verbal/writing sample
The student who has scored 20 or above in ACT mathematics	The student who has scored 20 or above in ACT mathematics	The student who has scored 20 or above on ACT reading	The student who has scored 20 or above on ACT reading
Dual Enrollment students who have earned Manor credit in college level mathematics	Dual Enrollment students who have earned Manor credit in college level mathematics	Dual Enrollment students who have earned Manor credit for EN101	Dual Enrollment students who have earned Manor credit for EN101.
The student who has transferred MH103 or equivalent from another institution unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has transferred MH103 or equivalent from another institution unless he/she is accepted into an Allied Health Program	The student who has transferred EN101 and/or EN102 from another institution	The student who has transferred EN101 and/or EN102 from another institution

Accuplacer Exemption Policies

Exemption from Elementary Algebra Test	Exemption from Arithmetic Test	Exemption from Reading Test	Exemption from Writing Test
		The student who has earned a 2.6 GPA in high school and has earned a grade of C or better in each of his/her high school English classes	The student who has earned a 2.6 GPA in high school and has earned a grade of C or better in his/her high school English classes
		The student who has earned six or more college-level credits, with a C or better	The student who has earned six or more college-level credits, with a C or better
The student who has taken the required Accuplacer Sub-Tests for the current academic year at another accredited college or university, in a proctored setting, can opt to have the Official Accuplacer Score Report sent to Manor College in lieu of taking the Accuplacer tests at Manor College	The student who has taken the required Accuplacer Sub-Tests for the current academic year at another accredited college or university, in a proctored setting, can opt to have the Official Accuplacer Score Report sent to Manor College in lieu of taking the Accuplacer tests at Manor College	The student who has taken the required Accuplacer Sub-Tests for the current academic year at another accredited college or university, in a proctored setting, can opt to have the Official Accuplacer Score Report sent to Manor College in lieu of taking the Accuplacer tests at Manor College	The student who has taken the required Accuplacer Sub-Tests for the current academic year at another accredited college or university, in a proctored setting, can opt to have the Official Accuplacer Score Report sent to Manor College in lieu of taking the Accuplacer tests at Manor College

A student may retake each subtest only once. There is a $25.00 fee to retest for one or more of the four tests.