

Bachelor of Science PUBLIC POLICY

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Public Policy Degree will prepare decision makers in the public and private sector with a solid background in law, ethics and policy, and give them a unique opportunity to delve into areas such as: Crisis Management, Public Policy Ethics, Non-Profit Organizations and NGOs, Public Service, Adult and Aging, among other areas.

Starting with an historical perspective, students within the program will not only have an opportunity to investigate the issues that affect public policy today but will be able to look at the role of public policy in government and the private sector going into the future.
