

Manor College invites applications for a full time faculty member in the Business Program eager to employ your expertise, vision, and passion for undergraduate courses in Business and in Sports & Recreation Management.

Job Summary:

Working collaboratively with the Division Dean and other Business faculty, your role is to teach, advise, and mentor our students within the program. Your vision and leadership will guide our students and provide a high-quality education. You will have a commitment to active learning, assessing the program learning outcomes, and mentoring our students toward their professional development and successful graduation. As a member of the faculty, you will contribute not only to the program, but to the College and full-University events and activities. You will:

- Teach courses within the sports and recreation management program, as well as associated business and general education courses.
- Supervise independent studies, theses, and internships, when appropriate.
- Maintain familiarity with current texts, materials and teaching methodology.
- Serve on committees at the College and University levels, as appropriate.

Skills and Qualifications:

In this role, the skills and qualifications that you possess will include:

- Qualified applicants will have a master's degree in business or sport management or closely related discipline, with a terminal degree or ABD preferred. Qualified applicants will also have teaching experience in business and in sport management or a closely related discipline. Professional experience in the sport industry is highly desirable
- Evidence of professional experience in sports and recreation management, marketing, and/or administration is preferred.
- Evidence of outreach or relationship building with external constituents.
- You will be able to demonstrate evidence of effective college/university teaching experience, both face-to-face and on-line.
- Have an ability to work effectively with a diverse student and faculty population.

Application Deadline:

For consideration, please submit 1) a cover and include the following information: (1) statement of teaching philosophy that includes how you incorporate diversity in your teaching and advising, 2) curriculum vitae/resume, salary requirements, and 3) three professional references with address, email, and phone numbers, by email to: jobs@manor.edu attention: Human Resources Business Program Faculty
Confidential screening of applications will continue until the position is filled. The expected start date will be at the beginning of the 2023-2024 academic year

Equal Opportunity Statement

Manor College is committed to the principle of equal educational and employment opportunities for all people and embraces diversity. Furthermore, the College provides equal opportunity for all regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions), disability, genetics, citizenship status, military service, or any other status protected by law.